

Bharatiya Temple of Lansing proudly presents 1st SPRING Concert on April 25th (Saturday)

Anand Bhate, a disciple of Pandit Bhimsen Joshi, will perform at the Temple (in main hall). A reception will follow.

Anand Bhate is one of the most promising artistes in the new generation of the great Kirana tradition. He started his musical journey in early childhood and continued to present different aspects, such as Hindustani Classical Music, Marathi natyasangeet and devotional compositions. Afterwards, for more than 15 years now, he has been a disciple of the great classical vocalist, Pandit Bhimsen Joshi, doyen of the Kirana gharana and a living legend. He has performed at the Sawai Gandharva Music Festival at Pune in 2002, 2005, and 2007.

At present, he is a Group Manager with Zensar Technologies at Pune. In the course of his professional position as a software engineer, he travels abroad many times and also gives performances. Anand is a dedicated and hard-working professional—both as an engineer and as a musician. His professional work does not deter him from pursuing his passion, music.
