Temple Lecture series on Hinduism

Dear Devotee,

The Board of Trustees of Bharatiya Temple of Lansing has planned a series of religious talks and seminars on Hinduism for 2010 by scholars. Speakers will be invited throughout the year.

We would like to invite you for these events starting in February 2010 at the temple. Dr. K.S. Sripada Raju and Dr. C. A. Reddy will deliver the first two lectures for our community in the main temple hall. Please note that the talks will be followed by a reception (tea and snacks) in the dining hall. We are always looking for generous sponsors for these events.

1. February 20th, 5:00 PM to 6:00 PM - Seminar by Dr. Raju (Topic - "How the teaching from our ancient scriptures help in this troubled time - financial meltdown, job loss and other issues?").
2. March 13th 5:00 PM to 6:00 PM - Discourse by Dr. Reddy (Topic - "Hindu Dharma and its Universality". The discourse would include topics such as: what is Hindu Dharma? What are the cardinal tenets of Hindu Dharma? What does it mean to be a Hindu? Unique and yet unsurpassed contributions made by the great sages of India in exploring the inner nature of man, etc. This particular topic should be of interest to our youth too along with the adults.

Please come and benefit from these educational and spiritual discussions.
