

It's our great pleasure to inform you all about a special event right here in Lansing!!!

Lansing Area Marathi Families are coordinating an event as a mini-fundraiser for the Temple -

"Mi Anandi Joshi Boltey"- a Mono-Act Play by Mrs Ashwini Joshi!!

Venue: Bharatiya Temple of Lansing, 955 Haslet Road, Haslet, MI 48840.
Day: Saturday, November 14th 2009
Time: 4:00 PM to 5:30 PM followed by tea and snacks with the artist!
Ticket Cost: $10/-

Contacts for ticket/s booking:

Mrs Usha Kulkarni

Phone: 517-485-1060 - During day time from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM

Mrs Manasi Upadhye

Phone: 517-347-6154 - Evening from 5:00 PM to 11:00 PM

Email contact: manasiupadhye@yahoo.com

Make the check payable to 'Bharatiya Temple of Lansing' and mail it to-
Manasi Upadhye
1731 Circle Pines Ct
Okemos MI 48824

About the performance:

"Mi Anandi Joshi Boltey" is a dramatic self-narration based on the classic Marathi novel "Anandi Gopal" written by Ashwini's father-in-law S. J. Joshi. This is a solo performance (Ek Patri Prayog), as if Anandi is telling her own experiences and perceptions from her childhood to death. Anandi was a pioneer of her times, who came to U.S.A. around 150 years ago for medical studies and became the first Indian lady doctor. Gopalrao, her husband, actively supported her endeavor, being totally committed to the idea of women's education, a revolutionary concept at the time. This is a genuinely inspiring true story of a couple that went through extraordinary hardships to live up to the principles they believed in.