LAKSHARCHANA PUJA FOR LORD MAHA VISHNU

(Puja and Recitation of Vishnu Sahasranamam, followed by lunch)

Time: Noon to about 1:30 PM

Date: Saturday, October 30, 2010

Laksharchana means reciting the Lord's names 100,000 times (collectively). This is the 9th year that this puja is being organized at our Temple by a group of families from the Farmington Hills and Novi area. The group has invited all devotees of our Temple to join them in performing the puja alongside them and receive the Lord's blessings. As in the past, each devotee will be able to do puja for himself/herself.

Please attend this function in large numbers so that the sponsors' wish to complete Laksharchana with one round of Vishnu Saharananam (which requires a minimum of 100 participating individuals) is fulfilled.

Prior to the Laksharchana Puja, the weekly Suprabhatam and Venkateswara Abhishekam will be held at special times, as follows:

Suprabhatam: 9:30 AM

Venkateswara Abhishekam: 10 AM

Laksharchana Puja: Noon

Arati: 1:30 PM (followed by prasad and lunch).
